

The June 2 vote on changing media ownership regulations should be postponed until further public discussions are held. I do not like the idea that my choices are controlled by a handful of giant media corporations. I am not alone.